PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. This is a civil rights action in which plaintiff, JESSICA RECHTSCHAFFER, seeks relief for defendants' violation, under color of state law, of her rights, privileges and immunities secured by the Civil Rights Act of 1871, 42 U.S.C. § 1983, the First, Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, and the Constitution and laws of the State of New York, during the Republican National Convention in New York City in 2004 ("the RNC").

Defendants, THE CITY OF NEW YORK, a municipal entity; MICHAEL 2. BLOOMBERG, Mayor of the City of New York; RAYMOND KELLY, New York City Police Commissioner; STEPHEN HAMMERMAN, Deputy Commissioner for Legal Matters, New York City Police Department; THOMAS DOEPFNER, Assistant Deputy Commissioner for Legal Matters, New York City Police Department; NYPD Special Counsel RUBY MARIN-JORDAN; JOSEPH ESPOSITO, Chief of the New York Police Department; THOMAS GRAHAM, Commander, Disorder Control Unit, New York City Police Department; JOHN J. COLGAN, Assistant Chief, New York City Police Department, ORLANDO RIVERA, New York City Police Officer, Shield No. 25912; JOHN PARK, Shield No. 20166, New York City Police Officer; MICHAEL CUMMINGS, New York City Police Detective; JOHN DOE 1, New York City Undercover Police Officer, U/C Shield No. 6216, Intelligence Bureau, Special Services Unit; JOHN DOES 2-10, New York City Police Officers, Supervisors, and/or Commanders, acting individually and in their official capacities, jointly and severally, implemented, enforced, encouraged, sanctioned and/or ratified policies, practices and/or customs to punish peaceful protest during the RNC by, inter alia, engaging in indiscriminate mass arrests which were unlawful and without probable cause, instituting a system of perjured sworn statements to attempt to justify those unlawful arrests, instituting a system of preventive detention to keep lawful peaceful demonstrators off the streets during the height of the RNC, requiring that all persons arrested in connection with the RNC be fingerprinted notwithstanding the level of offense and the arrestees' possession of valid identification in violation of New York Criminal Procedure Law § 160.10, and subjecting those arrested to intolerable and cruel and inhumane conditions, including denying them access to family members and to legal counsel for an inordinate and unreasonable amount of time and did cause JESSICA RECHTSCHAFFER to be falsely arrested; subject to excessive and unreasonable force; deprived of liberty without due process of law; and maliciously prosecuted, inter alia.

- 3. In promulgating and implementing these policies, defendants clearly knew that during the relevant period many thousands of people from New York City and around the country would converge in New York City to demonstrate their opposition to the military, foreign and domestic policies of the current United States government and to the nominee for president from the Republican Party, George W. Bush. Although some chose to engage in acts of civil disobedience to express their opposition to these policies and to the President, the overwhelming majority of those arrested, including Plaintiff JESSICA RECHTSCHAFFER, either expressed such opposition within the law and in a manner that followed the instructions and directions of NYPD police officers, or merely happened to be in the vicinity of what the NYPD perceived to be protest activity.
- 4. In addition to bringing the foregoing claims, plaintiff herein brings individual claims arising out of her individual arrest, including, without limitation, false arrest, false imprisonment, and excessive detention.
- 5. Plaintiff seeks compensatory and punitive damages, declaratory relief, an award of attorneys fees and costs, and such other and further relief as the Court deems proper.

JURISDICTION

6. Jurisdiction is conferred upon this Court by 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1343 (3) and (4), as this action seeks redress for the violation of plaintiff's constitutional and civil rights.

- 7. Plaintiff's claim for declaratory relief is authorized by 28 U.S.C. §§ 2201 and 2202 and Rule 57 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.
- 8. Plaintiff further invokes this Court's supplemental jurisdiction, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1367(a), over any and all state constitutional and state law claims that are so related to the claims within the original jurisdiction of this Court that they form part of the same case or controversy.

VENUE

9. Venue is proper in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391 (b)(2), in that this is the judicial district in which the events giving rise to the claim occurred.

JURY DEMAND

10. Plaintiff demands a trial by jury in this action on each and every one of her claims.

PARTIES

- 11. Plaintiff, JESSICA RECHTSCHAFFER, is a citizen and resident of New York.
- 12. Defendant CITY OF NEW YORK ("the City") is a municipal entity created and authorized under the laws of the State of New York. - 15. STEPHEN HAMMERMAN, is and was at all times relevant herein, the Deputy Commissioner for Legal Matters for the New York City Police Department, and he is responsible, in whole and/or in part, for the creation, implementation, promulgation and enforcement of the policies, practices and /or customs complained of herein. He is sued individually and in his official capacity.
- 16. THOMAS DOEPFNER, is and was at all times relevant herein, Assistant Deputy Commissioner for Legal Matters for the New York City Police Department, and he is responsible, in whole and/or in part, for the creation, implementation, promulgation and enforcement of the policies, practices and /or customs complained of herein. He is sued individually and in his official capacity.
- 17. Defendant RUBY MARIN-JORDAN is, and was at all times relevant herein, Special Counsel to the New York City Police Department, and she is responsible, in whole and/or in part, for the creation, implementation, promulgation and enforcement of the policies, practices and /or customs complained of herein. She is sued individually and in her official capacity.

- 18. Defendant JOSEPH ESPOSITO is and was at all times the Chief of Department of the NYPD, and he is responsible, in whole and/or in part, for the creation, implementation, promulgation and enforcement of the policies, practices and /or customs complained of herein. He is sued individually and in his official capacity.
- 19. Defendant THOMAS GRAHAM is the Commanding Officer of the Disorder Control Unit of the NYPD and he is responsible, in whole and/or in part, for the creation, implementation, promulgation and enforcement of the policies, practices and/or customs complained of herein. He is sued individually and in his official capacity.
- 20. Defendant JOHN J. COLGAN, is a Deputy Chief in the NYPD and was the senior official overseeing the NYPD's operations at Pier 57 and he is responsible, in whole and/or in part, for the creation, implementation, promulgation and enforcement of the policies, practices and/or customs complained of herein. He is sued individually and in his official capacity.
- 21. Defendant Command and Supervisory officers are NYPD Command and Police Officers involved in the arrests of the plaintiffs and all of the actions and conduct associated therewith, including, inter alia, the use of force, the preferring of charges, the approval of charges, the prosecution of the plaintiffs, the abuse of criminal process, the cruel and inhumane conditions to which those arrested were subjected, the excessive and unnecessary detention, and the implementation of the challenged policies and practices in question herein. They are sued individually and in their official capacities.
- 22. Defendant ORLANDO RIVERA is, or was at all times relevant to this complaint, a police officer employed by the NYPD. He is sued individually and in his official capacity.

- 23. Defendant JOHN PARK is, or was at all times relevant to this complaint, a police officer employed by the NYPD. He is sued individually and in his official capacity.
- 24. Defendant MICHAEL CUMMINGS is, or was at all times relevant to this complaint, a police officer employed by the NYPD. He is sued individually and in his official capacity.
- 25. Defendant JOHN DOE 1, U/C Shield No. 6216 is, or was at all times relevant to this complaint, a police officer employed by the NYPD. The identity of JOHN DOE 1, who as of August 29, 2004, was assigned to the Intelligence Bureau, Special Services Unit, is known to defendant City of New York and the New York City Police Department, as well as, on information and belief, defendants ORLANDO RIVERA and/or JOHN PARK and/or one or more of the defendants JOHN DOES 2-10.
- 26. JOHN DOES 2-10 include individuals, known to defendant City of New York and the New York City Police Department, as well as, on information and belief, defendants ORLANDO RIVERA and/or JOHN PARK and/or defendant JOHN DOE 1. JOHN DOES 2-10 are, or at all times relevant to the complaint were, police officers, supervisors, and/or commanders in the NYPD, and include individuals who assisted and/or conspired to and/or acted in concert to and/or did engage in the violations of plaintiff=s rights described herein.
- 27. Defendants BLOOMBERG, KELLY, HAMMERMAN, DOEPFNER, MARIN-JORDAN, ESPOSITO, GRAHAM, COLGAN, RIVERA, PARK, CUMMINGS, JOHN DOE 1, and JOHN DOES 2-10, (collectively, "the individual defendants") are, or at all times relevant to the complaint were, employees, agents, servants, and/or officers of the City of New York and/or the NYPD.

- 28. At all times relevant herein, each of the individual defendants acted under color of law in the course and scope of his duties and functions as an agent, employee, servant, and/or officer of the City and/or the NYPD in engaging in the conduct described herein.
- 29. At all times relevant herein, the individual defendants have acted for and on behalf of the City and/or the NYPD with the power and authority vested in them as officers, agents, servants, and/or employees of the City and/or the NYPD, and incidental to the lawful pursuit of their duties as officers, agents, servants, and/or employees of the City and/or the NYPD.
- 30. At all times relevant herein, the individual defendants violated clearly established constitutional standards under the First, Fourth, and Fourteenth Amendments of which a reasonable police officer and/or public official under his respective circumstances would have known.

FACTS APPLICABLE TO ALL CLAIMS

- 31. At or around 2:30 p.m. on August 29, 2004, plaintiff, JESSICA RECHTSCHAFFER, was lawfully present on the 34th Street between 6th and 7th Avenues in Manhattan.
- 32. RECHTSCHAFFER was engaging in lawful, peaceable protest against the Republican National Convention and the policies of the president and his administration.
- 33. At or about the aforesaid time and place, RECHTCHAFFER did observe members of the NYPD beating an individual, and did verbally protest the police violence.
- 34. At no time did RECHTSCHAFFER violate any law, regulation, or ordinance, or any order of a police officer.

- 35. At no time did RECHTSCHAFFER interfere with any police officer or police operations, or engage in any conduct that could reasonably be construed as endangering or threatening any police officer or other individual.
- 36. Notwithstanding the absence of probable cause or reasonable suspicion to believe plaintiff had committed any crime or offense, and based in whole or in part on plaintiff's having protested the police violence she had witnessed, one of the individual defendants grabbed RECHTSCHAFFER from behind and pushed her to the ground.
- 37. Plaintiff was pinned to the ground and handcuffed by one or more of the individual defendants.
- 38. One or more of the individual defendants did also mace plaintiff after she was secured, despite the fact that plaintiff was not and had not engaged in any conduct that could reasonably be construed as endangering or threatening any police officer or other individual, nor was she resisting arrest.
- 39. Several other individual defendants did assist and/or did act in concert in the foregoing assaultive and wrongful conduct, or did fail to intervene to stop the foregoing violations of plaintiff's constitutional rights.
- 40. The use of force described in the preceding paragraphs was objectively unreasonable in light of the circumstances then and there prevailing, and as such constituted excessive force directed against plaintiff's person, and did cause her injury.
- 41. Plaintiff was transported to Pier 57, where she was held in filthy conditions for many hours.
- 42. Plaintiff was eventually transported to 100 Centre Street, where she was arraigned at approximately 6 p.m. on August 30, and released on bail at approximately 11 p.m. that night.

- 43. While RECHTSCHAFFER was in custody, NYPD officers were sent to plaintiff's home, parent's home, and place of work as part of an investigation headed by defendant CUMMINGS, and people at those locations were questioned about plaintiff's political affiliations.
- 44. While in custody, plaintiff was fingerprinted, pursuant to a policy requiring that all persons arrested in connection with the RNC be fingerprinted notwithstanding the level of offense and the arrestees' possession of valid identification in violation of New York Criminal Procedure Law ' 160.10.
- 45. At her arraignment, plaintiff was charged with Assault in the First Degree, Assault on a Peace Officer, Police Officer, Fireman or EMS Professional, Reckless Endangerment in the First Degree, Hindering Prosecution in the Second Degree, Riot in the First Degree, Resisting Arrest, and Obstructing Governmental Administration in the Second Degree.
- 46. Plaintiff pleaded not guilty to all of the charges, which were false and falsely sworn to by defendant ORLANDO RIVERA, pursuant to a system of perjured sworn statements to attempt to justify unlawful arrests, based on false information provided by defendant JOHN DOE 1 and JOHN PARK, and, on information and belief, one or more of the defendants MICHAEL CUMMINGS and JOHN DOES 2-10, and were initiated and continued maliciously and without probable cause, in order to cover up the wrongful conduct of defendants.
- 47. Plaintiff was subsequently indicted by a grand jury for Riot in the Second Degree, Reckless Endangerment in the Second Degree, Obstructing Governmental Administration in the Second Degree, Resisting Arrest, and Hindering Prosecution in the Third Degree, based on the willfully false testimony of one or more of the individual defendants.

- 48. At her arraignment upon the indictment, plaintiff pleaded not guilty to all of the charges, which were initiated and continued maliciously and without probable cause, in order to cover up the wrongful conduct of defendants.
- 49. After many months and multiple court visits that required plaintiff to miss work, all of the charges were eventually dismissed because, on information and belief, the District Attorney realized that the charges were based on false statements and testimony of one or more of the individual defendants.
- 50. The individual defendants' acts and omissions described above were intentional, wanton, willful and malicious, and were performed with deliberate indifference and/or in reckless disregard of RECHTSCHAFFER's constitutional rights, entitling plaintiff to punitive damages.
- 51. Each of the actions complained of herein was part of and pursuant to a policy, custom, and/or practice of the City and/or the NYPD of stifling protest during the RNC by engaging in mass arrests of demonstrators, those perceived to be demonstrators, and those merely in the vicinity of demonstrators, without individualized suspicion or probable cause.
- 52. Each of the actions complained of herein was part of and pursuant to a policy, custom, and/or practice of the City and/or the NYPD of stifling protest during the RNC by failing to properly screen, train, supervise, discipline and/or monitor police officers with respect to the rights of demonstrators, those perceived to be demonstrators, and those in the vicinity of demonstrators.
- 53. The filthy, unhealthy and dangerous conditions at Pier 57, the inhumane treatment and denial of water and prompt medical attention that plaintiff suffered while in custody, and the excessive length of time plaintiff was held in custody, inter alia, were part of and pursuant to a policy, custom, and/or practice of the NYPD and/or the City of stifling protest during the RNC by subjecting to abuse demonstrators, those perceived to be demonstrators, and those in the vicinity of demonstrators, and/or by encouraging, ratifying, sanctioning, and/or acting with deliberate indifference toward threats to the health, safety, and rights of such individuals.

- 54. Said policies, customs, and/or practices were created, designed, implemented, enforced, and/or ratified on behalf of the CITY OF NEW YORK and the NYPD by defendants KELLY and BLOOMBERG.
- 55. As a direct and proximate result of the foregoing actions, including defendants' wrongful policies, practices, customs and/or usages complained of herein, RECHTSCHAFFER has suffered physical injury, pain, and suffering, mental anguish, embarrassment, humiliation, and emotional distress, deprivation of liberty and property, and loss of income and other expenses.

FEDERAL CLAIMS

- 56. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations set forth in Paragraphs 1 through 38 as if fully set forth herein.
  - 57. The acts and conduct described above did violate RECHTSCHAFFER'S rights
    - (a) not to be deprived of liberty without due process of law;
    - (b) to be free from unreasonable search and seizure;
    - (c) not to be subjected to excessive or unreasonable use of force;
    - (d) to be free from false arrest, imprisonment, and unjustified detention;
    - (e) not to be detained in cruel and inhumane conditions
    - (f) not to be detained for an excessive period of time
    - (g) to be free from malicious prosecution;
    - (h) to engage in speech, peacable assembly, and association
    - (i) to be free from conspiracy to violate her federally protected rights, all in violation of the First, Fourth, and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution and 42 U.S.C. § 1983.

- 59. Defendant CITY OF NEW YORK is liable for the foregoing violations inasmuch as they occurred pursuant to the municipal policies, practices, and/or customs described above.
- 58. As a result of the acts and conduct of the defendants complained of herein, plaintiff RECHTSCHAFFER has suffered physical injury, pain, and suffering, mental anguish, embarrassment, humiliation, and emotional distress, deprivation of liberty and property, and loss of income and other expenses.

STATE CLAIMS

- 59. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations set forth in Paragraphs 1 through 41 as if fully set forth herein.
- 60. The acts and conduct of the defendants constitute assault and battery, false arrest and imprisonment, malicious prosecution, abuse of process, negligence and gross negligence, negligence in training, hiring, and supervision, and conspiracy, under the laws of the State of New York. These acts and conduct also violated RECHTSCHAFFER's rights under Article I, 6, 8 and 12 of the Constitution of the State of New York.
- 61. Defendant CITY OF NEW YORK is liable for the actions of the individual defendants under the doctrine of respondeat superior.
- 62. As a result of the acts and conduct of the defendants complained of herein, RECHTSCHAFFER has suffered physical injury, pain, and suffering, mental anguish, embarrassment, humiliation, and emotional distress, deprivation of liberty and property, and loss of income and other expenses.

63. Plaintiff served a notice of claim upon defendant CITY OF NEW YORK within 90 days of the incident and has otherwise complied with the statutory requirements of the General Municipal Law of the State of New York. Although more than 30 days have elapsed since service of the notice and since plaintiff's 50-h hearing, this defendant has neglected to adjust or pay such claim.

WHEREFORE, plaintiff demands the following relief jointly and severally against all defendants:

- (a) a declaration that defendants violated the federal rights of plaintiff;
- (b) compensatory damages for physical, emotional, and economic injuries suffered by plaintiff by reason of defendants' unlawful and unjustified conduct, in an amount just and reasonable and in conformity with the evidence at trial;
  - (c) punitive damages against the individual defendants to the extent allowable by law;
  - (d) attorneys fees;
  - (e) the costs and disbursements of this action; and
  - (f) such other and further relief as appears just and proper.

Dinler/Schiller - Revised January 31, 2007

Below is a list of individuals Defendants may rely on at trial to offer testimony relevant to their defense against Plaintiffs' claims. In addition, Defendants reserve their right to call any additional witnesses it deems necessary to rebut any testimony given by Plaintiffs or their witnesses regarding any claims arising from their arrest and detention during the Republican National Convention ("RNC"). We also reserve the right to call any witnesses needed for authentication or admissibility of exhibits.

Document 21-2

A. Individuals with Knowledge of the Planning, Preparation, Policing and Arrest Processing for the RNC

- Chief of Department Joseph Esposito Chief Esposito was the Chief of Department at the time of the RNC and may testify about the planning and preparation for the RNC, including the adoption of particular policies and procedures. Chief Esposito was deposed for 4 days in these actions.
- Assistant Chief John Colgan Chief Colgan was the acting C.O. of the Criminal Justice Bureau at the time of the RNC and may testify about the planning of, preparation for, and arrest processing during the RNC as well as the operations of the Post Arrest Staging Site ("PASS") at Pier 57 during the RNC. He may also testify about the planning and preparation for the RNC including the formation, organization, and training of the mobile field forces, as well as

As discussed, while plaintiffs contention interrogatories withdraw the conditions of confinement as a liability claim, Chris Dunn stated to me that he still intends to have plaintiffs testify regarding their conditions of confinement to support their damages. To that end, defendants still may rely upon the "conditions" witnesses in our case in chief as part of our defense of the Schiller and Dinler cases. Since plaintiffs stated that they wanted defendants solely related to this catergory identified, they have been marked with the following "Idefense witness for its case in chief regarding conditions of confinement]".

In addition, defendants are still waiting for plaintiffs' revised contention interrogatories with answers to subpart b of all questions as previously agreed. If those responses change the context of the answers currently set forth, defendants reserve their right to call witnesses which are followed with the designation: "[withdrawn based upon plaintiffs' responses to defendants' contention interrogatories]".
